"To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." My prayers and thoughts are with you as you go through this difficult time. I am so blessed to have had the privilege of knowing and helping Violet. She was truly a gem=) Even though I no longer was caring for Violet, she and the family was always in my thoughts. Ryan, always kept me informed on how she was doing.

Continue to lean and depend on God. He will give you the comfort, strength, and peace you need to continue on in this life.

Love ya'll,

Dear Family,
I was so sad to hear about Violet. I knew she had been sick for some time. I remember so many fun times we all had when I was growing up coming to your house for the holidays!
Those will always be great memories of your mom and our family. I am sorry I can't be with you, but I will keep you all close in prayer.

Love, Lisa##imported-begin##Lisa Bearden Sloan##imported-end##

Harold, Steve, and Lynda. We are saddened to learn of Violet's passing. Brad Cain and I shall always treasure the good times we had as he and your children grew up together. Life isn't easy, especially when our loved ones leave us, but we can hold on to our trust in our Heavenly Father and know that He works everything for the good to those who love him and follow His calling. May He bring you comfort in the days ahead. We love you and are praying for your peace.##imported-begin##Tally & Katherine Grant##imported-end##
