“ A true angel on Earth. She was a strong example and one of the most joyful people you'd ever meet. She never let anyone leave her without making them feel loved beyond words. There will NEVER be another like Aunt Abigail. In your beautiful memory. We love you.

“ Brother Calvin and family,
LC and I are praying for each of you. Sister Abigail was a wonderful Christian lady. We enjoyed her as our pastor's wife. She always had a smile and a special comment to say to each individual's paths she came across. She was very encouraging to others. We enjoyed her singing and playing the piano. We loved her. Her passing on from this life is a deep loss to us, but a great gain in heaven. She has no doubt joined the heavenly choir and is singing praises to King Jesus for all eternity.

God bless you,

“ One of the meanings of her name is "fountain of joy." Abigail was truly that to us. In response to hearing of a comment she made in the days before her passing, which came out just a little sweeter than the comment that had been made to her I was reminded that her words seemed to always have a bit of sugar on top. I will miss her presence, cherish her memory and look forward to basking once again in her joy when we meet again.

Calvin & Family, you are in our thoughts & prayers. Abigail was certainly a wonderful christian lady and will be greatly missed. I always loved to hear her play the piano and listen to her beautiful voice. She was such an inspiration to us when you both attended New Hope and she was in our SS Class.
