“ My life has been richly Blessed by the love and friendship this lady freely gave. Her commitment and devotion to God and raising a Godly family can easily be seen in the way her family cares and provided for her and still supports each other. This family has seen their share of grief. But, the most wonderful and comforting thought I can share is that, the family and I know she was a member of God's family and we will see her again. Nancy has already had that opportunity. Yes, Nancy was probably waiting at the gate but I bet she heard Mama say, "Well hurry up ,we got to go", as Aileen busted through that gate on her way to see Jesus.
To know that Aileen has seen the face of the master is such a wonderful comforting thought for me!
I'll cherish the time I was given with her and look forward to that day I'll see her again!
I don't believe there will be Flea Markets in Heaven, BUT, I know Aileen and Nancy will be joining Ralph and Noah to walk around on those streets of gold. All my love and Prayers to the family. God Bless each of you!!
