“ We met Ehrline at the Henson Family Reunion in 2007. She was a charming lady and a true southern belle. We enjoyed speaking with her and learned much family history from her. We were saddened to hear of her passing.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you .##imported-begin##Bill and Sue Henson##imported-end##

“ Bill, Melissa, Gary, Vanessa and Kelsey....words cannot express how we feel in Erhline's homegoing. We are happy for her as now she is no longer struggling to live in this ole world. We grieve for ourselves as we have all lost a beautiful precious lady that touched everyone that came in contact with her. Her determination these past years with your sickness Bill and how she so faithfully took wonderful care of you and these years she has been on oxygen and she never gave up. Always had a smile and a kind word and was certainly an inspiration to us at the church. Heaven is brighter today for having her become a citizen there on Thursday, but Stamp Creek will have to keep going with her memory of what a faithful and dedicated lady she was to her Lord and church and her family.
