“ I had the pleasure of taking care of Andrew. A fine, young gentleman. We loved making him laugh and what a beautiful smile he had. His smile brightened our hearts and even on our toughest days, Andrew would make us laugh with his laughter. Truly blessed to have met him and been a part of his life. R.I.H soldier. Thank you so much for your service. ❤️

“ I was Andrew's recruiter. When he first came to the Marine Corps office he was not eligible due to him being overweight. I told Andrew that he needed to loose approximately 10-15lbs in order to talk to me and all he said was, "I'll be seeing you soon then." Now if you knew him back in 2014/2015 you'd remember that he was a mountain of a man and he had a real chip on his shoulder for some reason... either way I didn't think that he would loose the weight at all... Well, within a week he was back in my office and the weight was gone. He told me that he was a man of his word and he truly was a determind young man. I was very fond of him as a future Marine because I saw a lot of myself in him and we stayed in touch throughout his time in service. I'm glad to have known him and I'm very proud to have served with someone as strong willed as him. I'll love you forever lil bro! Til Valhalla!
