

Ann Christina Antonette

October 15, 2009

Salem, SC—Ann C. Antonette, 84, beloved wife of Joe Antonette, of 21 Channel Lane, Salem, SC, passed away Thursday, October 15, 2009, at Cottingham Hospice House in Seneca.

Born September 26, 1925 in Queens, NY, Mrs. Antonette was the daughter of the late Edward Otto and Barbara Kathryn Hoffman Gyger. She was a member of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church. Homemaker for most of her life, Mrs. Antonette was very active in her children and grandchildren's activities and school functions. She loved Grandparent's Day and to travel, especially to Italy with her family. Gardening, reading, traveling, golf, bridge and spending time with her family were her greatest pleasures. She was a long time resident of Keowee Key and was a devoted, creative and tireless volunteer for her church and her community. Her generous and unselfish spirit and deep abiding love for her family, friends and neighbors were widely known.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Antonette is survived by daughters, Jo-Ann Antonette Brooks and husband, Randall, of Columbia, SC and Kathy Antonette Peterson of Greenville; and her grandchildren, Randall Ellis Brooks of Columbia, Elizabeth Ann Peterson Paul and her husband, Adam, of Johns Island and James Joseph (Jay) Peterson of Windsor, CA.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Antonette was predeceased by brother, Frederick Otto Gyger.

A Memorial Mass will be conducted at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church, Seneca, SC, at 11:00 a.m., Monday, October 26, 2009. The family will receive friends following the service in the church Papineau Hall.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made for cancer research or to the charity of one's choice.

The family wishes to thank Dr. Jeffery Giguere and Dr. David Liebman for their loving care of Mrs. Antonette.
