“ I met Ann at the animal shelter where we volunteered our time helping the animals..especially the cats. During the time I worked with her I truly liked and enjoyed being around her...my heart hurts knowing she's gone. She was a Beautiful person. My deepest sympathy to her family.
She will be missed. Ann "Rest in Peace".##imported-begin##Janice K. Bond##imported-end##

“ To the whole family you have my deepest and sincere condolences. This is a great tragedy but if we let our anger and judgements go our grief can take it's natural course. I will remember Ann in the good times. She had much to give. I feel blest to have known her for the short time we had as friends. Love to each of you--
