

Mrs. Annie Jo Parrish

February 27, 1932 - July 14, 2017

Annie Jo Parrish, 85, wife of the late Joe H. Parrish, of 15855 Wells Hwy, Seneca, passed away Friday, July 14, 2017, at Morningside Assisted Living.

A native of Seneca, SC, Mrs. Parrish was the daughter of the late Robert Wesley and Sally Wheeler Curtis. She retired from Winn-Dixie after 20 years of service. Mrs. Parrish was a member of the Senior Citizen Group, Willing Workers Sunday School Class and Utica Baptist Church.

Mrs. Parrish is survived by her sons: Donald L. Parrish (Pamela) of Huntsville, AL and Rick C. Parrish (Cynthia) of Mebane, NC; brothers: L.D. Curtis of Ormond Beach, FL; sisters: Sue Stone of West Union, SC, Guynelle Rogers of West Union, SC and Jean Foxx (James) of Seneca, SC; three grandchildren: Eva Courtney, Rachel Wrenn and Sara Neumeister; and eight great-grandchildren: Alexandra, Samuel and Rachel Courtney, Rebecca and Victoria Neumeister; and Ethan, Jacob and David Wrenn.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Parrish was preceded in death by her brothers: Robert and Johnny Curtis; sister: Minnie L. Cantrell; and great-grandson: Gavin Wrenn.

A cryptside service will be conducted at 10:00 AM, Wednesday, July 19, 2017, at Ocone Memorial Park Mausoleum Chapel.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to The Gideons International Bible, www.gideons.org/sendtheworld.com or to The American Cancer Society, 154 Miles Way, Greenville, SC 29615.

The family is at their respective homes.

“ *She was 12 years old when I first met her. I am and will always be her "baby" brother.
She has a good heart and wonderful spirit. There are so many memories with her and her sons. She will forever remain in my heart. Our Mother said that Jo and I shared that wanderer lust. We always were looking for new adventures and meeting new friends. She is off on another great adventure.*
