“ I thank god we made amends before your passing never did I realize our son would be right behind you and our babygirl & grandson fighting for there life with cancer as well! But I just want you to no we love you and as parents to adult childern! I was do very proud of you them last few years ! We were so young and Joanna getting burned throw us both into a dark whole! That we never taught we'd ever find our way out! But by Gods grace we did ! Love your wife forever and always Johelen derrick
