“ I remember when he used to pick me up from pre-school, and on the way home, he would lean over and say, "Do you want an ice cream? I do, let's go get some." And he would take me to McDonald's and get me and him an ice cream, then he would drive to the park and we would get out, sit at one of the tables, and talk. I never realized how much I took those moments for granted until I realized I wouldn't get any more of those "secret" ice cream stops.. That I wouldn't get to have one of those big ol' Papa hugs that just make everything, every worry go away for that short moment. I wouldn't get any more of that. and that is what hurts so bad. I miss you Papa. I always will.

“ Tony and I use to play ball in his front yard about 55 years ago. His Dad would sit in a lounge chair and watch us. I believe his Dad enjoyed it as much as we did. I remember Tony being of a quiet, gentle disposition. I am very sorry for his passing.

“ Tony I was born in May and then you were born the following October. I was your niece and you were my Uncle before you were born. I have heard though the years how you and I would fight over toys when we were growing up. I honestly don't remember that but I know after we were grown we had a special kind of bond. We lived in different states, had families of our own and just life in general we didn't get to visit often but that didn't mean we didn't love each other. I will miss you dearly.
My sincere condolences to Shirley, Michael, Laura, Eric, Rachael, Nikki and Jason. And all the grandchildren.
Praying for Peace and Comfort to you all.
