“ My sincere condolences to Lynn and the family.

Tony was a good a friend as a person could have. Throughout middle and high school, his easygoing nature and sense of humor were constant companions to me and always lightened the mood -- you just could not stay down around him! We reconnected periodically - as is often the case - when things go awry. He was supportive and uplifting; ever the rock. He always bore the adversity placed on him with grace though I could tell it weighed heavily on him. So thankful to have shared those years long ago with him as friend! Semper fi, bro!
