“ My deepest condolences go out to Bill and to all of Arleen’s family and friends. We are all now dealing with unbelievable grief and sense of loss.

Bill and Arleen were my neighbors for 18 years until I moved away this past Spring, and I valued their friendship very much. Arleen was a truly good friend, selfless, sweet and generous to a fault, and thoroughly dependable. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. Arleen helped me out a lot through the years, and I could never have repaid her sufficiently. She was always happily willing to cover for me when I was out of town, feeding and walking my dog(s), watering my plants; and picking up my mail. What a thoughtful, caring person she was and someone who never asked for anything in return. I wish I could have done more for her and only hope she knew how much I appreciated and loved her.

My fondest memories of Arleen were our daily walks with our dogs, going out for lunch periodically, sometimes spending hours shopping together, and having wonderful visits over afternoon tea when we would catch up with each other’s news. I will never forget watching her and Bill dancing at my daughter’s wedding, and a photo captured her happily smiling up at Bill as they were one of only three couples remaining on the dance floor in a contest to identify which couple celebrated the most anniversaries. Their devotion to each other has been inspiring.

Rest In peace, dear Arleen. You will be missed more than words can say.

“ Bill, I'm Dick Mangrum, long-time your neighbor on the other side of Camelia. I regret not making person acquaintance with either you or Arleen. I especially admired (from a distance) watching her care for your young grandson. Please accept my sincere condolences.
