“ Some of my best childhood memories are of Aunt June! We had great fun. She was more like a sister than an aunt to me. I'm so thankful she is now with Jesus, and I look forward to seeing her again one day!

“ When I was a small child, June was the pianist and choir director at Fairview. I was in the choir she directed for many years. As time went on, I was privileged to direct her in my choir at Fairview. Her voice was that of an angel. For the last 15 years or more, I sat beside her and played with her on the keyboard; something I've dearly missed in the last 3 years or so. I know she missed it, too, but she came to me not long ago to tell me how she was enjoying just listening now. She mentored my life in so many ways and words can't describe all she meant to me. I will dearly miss her and fondly remember the Christian example she set for me, as well as everyone who knew her. Reba Thompson

“ June was a cornerstone of Fairview Church for many years. She served with a joyful spirit, and it was evident that she loved the Lord and the church. My thanks go out to her for her encouragement of the young people in the church and for her example of dedication. Becky S. Rochester

“ You said once that you had no children. You did though. There was a choir full of us at Fairview that you certainly watched over and cared for. We will miss you, Miss. June.
