My friendship with Barbara go way back. She used to ride you, Gayle, on a bicycle to Sunday School. We went to Rock Hill in 1947 to State Basketball Championship, lost final game to Lancaster. We were students together at Winthrop, then she was Student Government President her Senior year.

“ *Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints in the snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.*

*When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.##imported-begin##Paul & Cathi
