“ Fredie and Tammy, Brandon and John and William,

I am so sorry for your loss of Sue in your world. She was a sweetheart that loved her family. She was a joy to spend time with even when she had those days where she was not well. I will forever see her in my mind sitting in her chair by the phone. Everyone that came to her home was welcome and she enjoyed having visitors. Her enjoyments included her church family and the auctions and going out to eat, and she liked talking about those enjoyments. After not being well for so many years, she is now at rest and out of pain, that is a great blessing. God does not make mistakes and surely it was her time to go home and be at peace. May her memories just grow sweeter.
