“ Robbie and family I can not put in words how you all must feel. My thoughts and my prayer are with you. Even knowing she no longer hurts is not enough. I know she was a very special girl. We can only keep you and yours in our prayer in the months to come. They say time heals all wounds. But it takes a while. A long while. All my love “ Oh my sweet, sweet girl. That wonderful smile and bright eyes that looked up at me. I know you are entertaining God in heaven right now. I am picturing you playing 'Just Dance' with the angels and showing them your moves. I am picturing you running thru the hills and valleys of heaven without being short of breath. I am picturing you with wings of gold that carry you wherever you want to go. I am picturing you happy and at peace. I love you Becca and I will miss your earthly body and rejoice in the knowledge that you and I will meet again. I will continue to pray for your family and hope that your sweet memories will take the place of the pain they are feeling now. Becca is an inspiration, she is a hero and most importantly she is a child of God who will live forever in His grace.###imported-begin###Lisa DuBose, FNP###imported-end##

“ We are heartbroken from hearing about Becca's passing. She was such a sweet, loving little girl. She and my Granddaughter, Cassidy were buddies at Corinth Baptist Church. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers as we realize she is running and playing on the streets of gold, listening to our Lord tell all the children stories. She is WHOLE-no more pain and suffering...
