

Mr. Bernard N Brodoff

September 8, 1923 - July 8, 2017

Bernard Noah Brodoff, MD, of Keowee Key, Salem, SC, passed away on Saturday, July 8, 2017 at age 93, just two months following the death of his beloved wife of forty-nine years, Shirley Zena Brodoff. Dr. Brodoff graduated from New York University School of Medicine in 1946. He was a respected internist and endocrinologist, specializing in diabetes and obesity, and made significant contributions to research in the treatment of these diseases. Dr. Brodoff was a Clinical Professor of Medicine at the New York Medical College and Clinical Professor of Family Medicine at The Medical University of South Carolina, and also served in the internal medicine department of Oconee Memorial Hospital. He edited two key textbooks on diabetes and obesity. Dr. Brodoff was in private practice and continued to care for patients part-time into his eighties. He served in the United States Army during and following World War II, and completed his service as a First Lieutenant. In his younger years, he was an avid and gifted tennis player and swimmer.

Dr. Brodoff is survived by his younger sister, Barbara Greenberg, and by his three children, Andrew Lawrence Brodoff, Ami Sands Brodoff and her husband Michael Atkin, and Daniel Jonathan Brodoff, MD, and his wife Alison, as well as his four grandchildren, Tobias and Gabriel Atkin and Rebecca and Mathew Brodoff, and his great-granddaughter Abigail Jean. He is also survived by his step-son David Shimberg and his wife Barbara, and his step-daughter Judith Shimberg, and their children and grandchildren, Ali and Jason Shimberg and Collin Gibbons and his step great-granddaughter, Minda May Gibbons. Dr. Brodoff is survived as well by his brother-in-law, Lord Lawrence Collins and his nieces Paula Dennis and Janice Heller. A Memorial Service will be held in New York City at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to The Oconee Memorial Hospital Foundation, 298 Memorial Drive, Seneca, SC 29672.
