“ Bernice was always there for me to talk to when me and terry had problems. And me and tanner will always be grateful and thankful for what she done for him. A little bit of family when he was at his lowest. We loved her so much. Will miss her dearly.

“ I am so sorry for her passing. I loved her dearly and am so glad she chose to post to her friends of her illness. I connected immediately. We met travel nursing and had great times together. She loved resale shops. We shared so much together and even met in Florida after I retired from travel nursing. Great memories. Rest in peace my friend!

“ Always loved being around aunt Bernice. I have a lot of good memories of her from going to their home in McCormick and spending weekends with her and uncle James. She will be truly and deeply missed and is still loved by so many. What a beautiful angel.
