“ So I don't know how many folks do what I'm doing but that's ok, I am. Today is the four year anniversary of your earthly passing...Just wow! Time slows down for no one...The world is such a different place just in these four years since you left us and a lot has changed. But one thing is certain, the same God who called you home is still in control of everything! I know and believe because of Supernatural powers and the promises of the Holy Word that you have had some awesome reunions and are at peace and cancer free... but back here you are missed in a huge way! So many things that are reminders of the 59 years you were my earthly mom, many great and happy, some sad like today. Thru it all I still thank God that he chose you to be my mom, I've been so blessed. Just know you are thought of and loved everyday!!

*Until We Have Our Reunion,
I love and miss you,
Your Son, Phil*

“ *We may not have been related by blood, but Betty was family.
Treasured memories of weddings, births and birthday celebrations, holidays and meals shared, visits and talks with this special sweet lady fill my thoughts. Our hearts break for Cindy, Tim, Garrett and Tindsley as well as Phil, Debbie, Brooks, Kaitie and Landon, and the rest of the family. However, it is comforting to know that there is another bright, shining little star now looking down on us. Rest in peace Dear Betty.*

“ Thank you Miss Betty for that day I was introduced to you and you introduced this Yankee boy to your vegetable stew at Phil's house. Silver Queen corn from your garden made my day, then and now. I cannot think of it and not think of you. What a delight! Today the Lord delights in welcoming his daughter home. To Phil, Cindy and family, may her memory remind us to "show hospitality to strangers" (Hebrews 13:2) and in all ways be Gospel-lived.
