“ *To the precious Holliday family, Sending our deepest condolences in the loss of your mother and grandmother. She was always a loving and kind Christian lady. God bless each of you during this time. Our prayer for you is peace and the joy of knowing what a great mother and grandmother you were able to have these many years.
As the years pass by you will always have so many memories to share among yourselves. LC and Mary Jo Alexander*

“ Ken,

Ralph and I wanted to you to know we are thinking of you and the rest of the family. We understand how hard this is for you all. Please know we are here if anything we can do. I can still see your mom and dad faces at church every time the doors were open, and they always had a smile to share.

Love and prayers.
