“ I am a WHS classmate of Betty's and considered her my friend. I was so sorry to hear of her death. I have been sick myself for the past week or I would have been at her service. I will always remember her as being a happy person and can still see her pretty smile and hear her heart-warming laugh. God Bless##imported-begin##Mary Lou Hamilton##imported-end##

“ Betty could walk in a dark room and light it w/her radiant smile and loving spirit! At family gatherings and reunions, everyone wanted to be close to Betty. Her laugh was infectious...you couldn't stay down long when she was near. A wonderful Christian lady....she will be oh-so missed.

Love and Prayers.

“ A beautiful lady is sitting at the right hand of our Savior. Like my grandson, Kaden, told me, "Oh, Nana you need to sit and talk to Josh's grandma, she has such a kind heart." This was the person Betty was; a person with a kind heart to everyone. I know you will miss her, but anyone that she met was blessed in their life. We can thank God for the opportunity of knowing such a kind woman.

“ There really are no words to soothe a loss that is felt so deeply, though may it comfort you to remember that your Mother has left the best of herself behind in your memory and in your heart. May love and comfort surround you, and may you feel peace deep within your heart. We will deeply miss her at our "Jolly Seniors" at church. She was a Lovely Lady.
