“ To hear that Betty went home to be with the Lord is a silent blessing. I say silent because we as her family miss her dearly, but to be at peace with Jesus is what we're all striving for, so that's the blessing. We'll miss her laugh and commentary that would fill any room at mema's on those special occasions and her home on a regular basis. To those she leaves behind know that her life was lost but her soul is with the father waiting on all of you to come home and be reunited with her mother, father and daughter who went before her. It will be tough and there will be long days ahead but remember God's grace and mercy is stronger than we can imagine and will be there to hold you up when you feel you can't stand. Betty will be missed by those she knows she touched and those unknown who was blessed by her spirit. With love Eric and Tiffany Kelley
