“ As a teacher at Code Elementary I enjoyed walking with my third grade students to Senior Solutions every week to read with the clients. Billy was always smiling and wanting to hug all of us. He learned to hum along as we sang our goodbye song. When Code closed and I was relocated to Blue Ridge Elementary I was so excited that Billy and some of the other clients were able to visit the school and have lunch with my class. I'll never forget Billy starting to hum our song as he was leaving and I'll never forget Billy's smile. My thoughts are with you.

“ Our hearts are saddened to hear of Bill's passing. Cherry Hill lost a wonderful man of God but we know that our loss is Heaven's gain! Our church will still be filled with cherished memories of Brother Bill. What a blessing he was to all of us. He will be greatly missed. Praying for Gods peace and comfort to surround you all at this difficult time.
