“ Bobbie and family,

Your dad truly sounds like a remarkable, loving man. And the tight bond between you, your mom and dad is also remarkable. I've often admired the relationship you have with your parents, when I hear how you talk about them and see the devotion you have shown one another. Something I find most incredible is how "complete" your relationship is with your dad--what a gift to have known, loved, respected, understood each other so fully. And I can only imagine the heartbreak in losing your earthly relationship with him.

Life and death are truly miraculous, and your experience truly conveys this. Your grief touches my own. I hope you are able to grieve in whatever ways come naturally to you. If you ever want to talk about your dad and share about him, I am always happy to listen and to continue getting to know him through you. It is really lovely seeing the pictures you posted; his spirit shines in those photographs and beyond. I'm so glad he and your mom made you, raised you and shared you with us--such a brave, spiritual, compassionate, hard-working, loyal, giving, loving, fun, creative woman. I'm lucky to have you in my life, as are all your patients, friends, and family. I'm glad his light will continue to shine through you and the lives of those he touched.

You, your mom, David, your dad and rest of the family are so loved and cared about. I hope you each take care as best you can...

Love,

Ellen

“ After almost 6 years of serious illnesses, especially since January of this year, we lost Dad on Wednesday, June 8 at 4:02 PM. There were several times during Dad's journey when doctors felt we would lose him but Dad shared a “dream” he had about GOD visiting him in the hospital...”It is not your time to leave... You have work to do”. Many times we turned to these words to help us through each crisis that arose and we received great comfort. Dad then became known throughout the medical community as “our miracle patient”.

Dad's faith grew while on this journey, so did that of our family. Our family bond also strengthened. Dad touched many lives, doing GOD's work. He was thrilled when told of thousands that were praying for him, crossing denominations from as far away as MT to AZ, MA, NY, NC and throughout SC.

Dad loves GOD, loves family, loves life and wanted to live. He fought hard to do so, accepting each challenge with remarkable strength, willpower and a positive attitude. A kind and gentle man, loved by all.

Though breaking, my heart overflows with love for this AMAZING man that I, and only I am privileged to call “My Daddy”. He named me and I am proud to carry his name “Bobby”. I am also honored to have carried my Daddy to his resting place on Friday, June 10. He is left handed and I was positioned at the left side of his coffin at his left shoulder where I wanted to be.

We hurt, we grieve. Our tears honor him. We are so very BLESSED to have this man as ours. Dad's work on this earth is done. He now continues GOD's work from HEAVEN. We will be with him again in the house of our LORD.

“ Dear Mrs. Lewis,

We are David Holt's brother & sister-in-law, Robb & Dodie Holt, in Rochester, NY. We have not met you, but know your loving daughter, Bobbie. As was Dink, Bobbie is remarkable - very strong, with good ethics - a person of whom you can be very proud!

Bobbie & Dave kept us updated about almost all of Dink's struggles with dialysis & cancer, through his graveside funeral ceremonies. We, as all of you, were surprised by his sudden passing.

We have been keeping you in our prayers and know that you will remember all the good times you and Bobby experienced during your many years of marriage. He most certainly was a remarkable man, partly due, we suspect, to you, his loving wife, & to his Cherokee heritage.

With much sympathy,

Dodie & Robb
