

Capt. William Alford Gregg, IV

March 16, 2008

Salem, SC—Capt. William Alford Gregg, IV, USN (Ret), 79, beloved husband of Joni Gregg, of Keowee Key, Salem, SC, went to be with his Lord Sunday, March 16, 2008 at Cottingham Hospice House in Seneca.

Born May 19, 1928, in Piqua, Ohio, Mr. Gregg was the son of the late William Alford, III and Eloise Thornburg Gregg. He was educated at Walnut Hills High School, University of Cincinnati, and Xavier University, all of Ohio. He served as an aviator in the US Navy where he reached the rank of Captain. This fulfilled his passion for flying that lasted a lifetime. He was VP of R&D of Precision Valve Corp., in Yonkers, NY. He relocated his office to Travelers Rest, SC in 1991 where he worked until retirement in December 2006. He served his Lord as an Elder of Evangelism in the Presbyterian Church, served on several Kairos teams at McCormick Prison, and was CEO of Keowee Cares of Keowee Key. He was treasurer of Foothills Pregnancy Care Center, and was an active member of St. Mark United Methodist Church in Seneca.

In addition to his wife of thirty-six years, Mr. Gregg is survived by:

Sons: John Gregg and wife Lora Bethesda, MD

William Gregg and wife
Mary Margaret Atlanta, GA

Mark Bardo and wife Mary Beth Charlotte, NC

Daughters: Leslie Gregg-Jolly and husband James Grinnell, IA

Malia Read and husband Mark Atlanta, GA

Nine grandchildren

In addition to his parents, Mr. Gregg was predeceased by brother, Lewis Gregg.

A service celebrating his life will be conducted at 2:00 PM, Tuesday, March, 25, 2008 at Seneca Presbyterian Church.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Kairos of SC, c/o Deanna Wilson, Treasurer, PO Box 1363, Travelers Rest, SC 29690 or Cottingham Hospice House, 390 Keowee School Road, Seneca, SC 29672.

“ *To the family of Bill:
So sorry to hear of your loss. I was priviledged to be on team with Bill on Kairos #24 in 2005. Mac Cason had invited several of us from PA to be on team. My prayers are with you and your family. May you rejoice that he is with the Lord. De Colores. Kairos Brother, Jack Van Horn*
