“ Daddy there's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you and miss you. You wwere a wonderful dad. You were loving and giving and you had the best heart.

I just couldn't ever imagine having to live my life without you in it. It's hard and it hurts and I would give anything to have one last hug from you. I just love and miss you more than words could ever say.

Give mama and my babies hugs and Mary Jane too. ♡♡♡

It's coming up on the holidays here soon. And of course they won't be the same, as I have come to accept now. I think of you so much. I still see and speak to the ones that new you, I even had one old man that asked me if I was your sister!! I got a laugh out of that one, but told him who I was and had to tell him you passed. So he had to talk some about you of how he remembered you, and that was a good day! Hearing from a stranger that wanted to talk about you. I think sometimes people really don't want to hear me still talking about y'all. Like I should just put it in the past. How could I ever stop? Y'all were my life for 43 years! And I don't want to stop. And I won't. I love you Dad. Forever ❤️

So it's been 3 years today. It still doesn't seem real. I can't wait til the day we all are together again in God's presence. Singing His praises! What a glorious day that will be! Looking forward to Jesus' return! I won't have to worry about anymore tears, for they all will be wiped away! I love and miss you and Mom and Devin SO very much!! ❤️

“ I've only known Carley a little over a year, I'd say. I met him through a good friend of his and mine, William Alexander. I started helping at the car wash part time. My 1st day, on a monday morning, that I would be working by myself, when I pulled up to the car wash, Carley was there waiting on me. He was there to help me in any way that he could. He would later drop by to see me when I was there. Carley, I'll miss you coming by my friend. RIP.
