We have known Carol since she was a teenager. She was always very opened and friendly. We are deeply sorry for your loss. She will be missed by many. One thing for sure is that she made all things right in her heart with God. She will expect to see all her family and friends join her one day in heaven. God bless each of you during your grieving process. Depend on Him and He will give you Grace and Mercy. Please know each of you have many who love you and are here for you.*
