LOU was a dear and cherished friend for many years of my life. I taught her daughter Christine in Elementary School. Lou was always helpful in any kind of situation. We had many pleasant years together. Such a dear, kind and loving friend and I feel blessed that God lets us be together as lifetime friends. I will hold Lou in my heart forever, My deepest sympathy to Jim and his girls. Gayle Griffin

“ I never knew coming into my job i'd meet someone who would make an impact on my life the way Mrs. Lou did. Being her caregiver for the last six months brought many tears, laughs, and stories. Heaven sure gained one incredible angel. Christine, Angela, and Linda you and your family are in my prayers!
