“ Carolyn was one of the sweetest ladies to ever touch this earth. Never had a single harsh word for us boys (The Gang) even though we sure deserved it more than just a couple of times, but instead greeted us when we came in with a sweet hello and a beautiful smile. You were a second mother to us friends, especially me, and always looked out for us kids making sure we stayed out of trouble. Growing up there with Chris, Gary, Lynn, Kim, Mary, you always had an open door and place for me to stay any day, anytime, and i'll always remember that! May God give the family the comfort to see you're in his home now even though you're so very missed here. God just received a very special Angel! We love & miss you Carolyn.
