“ Carolyn Owens Dilworth was the kindest lady I've ever met in my life! She helped to raise me to be a kind hearted lady myself. I will never forget her! Nor Zeddie or their son Derrill! The greatest neighbors anyone could have! She cooked the best fried chicken I've ever put in my mouth! She was quiet spoken but she certainly kept Zeddie & Derrill & me in line. She was the boss of that family! I don't know how she put up with me all them years?? She was an asset to her community & always there to lend an ear if you needed her to listen to whatever you needed to share! I have some of the most fondest memories of The Dilworth's as close neighbors & friends! I am so sorry for your loss Derrill & Cynthia & family. Carolyn will be lovingly missed. I pray 🙏🙏🙏 for the days ahead. I am so sorry I didn't get to attend her funeral but, I just found out today, 18 July 22. Thanks to Frances Dilworth Skaggs for letting me know.
