“ Today my world stopped as I found out a dear man went to be with his father. I deliver The Seneca Journal to Pete and always looked forward to his light coming on and a bright smile that would greet me in the early hours of the day. We shared many stories about our families, paint colors etc. I will miss looking for the light to pop on and our visits.

Kathy my heart breaks for you and I've always told him there is a great woman behind every great man. My prayers are with you every night I come to your home.

*God bless you and your family,
Donna Smith*
