“ Dear Cash's family My name is Ava Simpson, I grew up with Cash. I believe I went to Upstate Children Center with him. I remember him being the sweetest kid there. I remember we would play horses together. His horse was always named Froot Loop and mine was Sparkie. I remember us looking for rocks for his rock collection outside almost every day. And I remember when we were in a Jumping House and it started to deflate with us in it because the thing that pumped air in it had detached. When he got out of the jumping house I remember he got so excited because he told us he had superpowers that when he was in there he started glowing green so for the rest of the day we played super heroes. Cash is and always will be part of my childhood. I loved him so much more than ever imagined.

“ To the family of Mr Cash Johnson, and to his Grandmother, my friend, Patricia McGraw. I'm so very sorry and heartbroken over the loss of Cash. He was such a handsome lil fellow. Ms Patti, no words can help at this I know, but just remember, one day and I don't think it's going to be long you will be able to reunite with "your lil buddy" again. He will be waiting on You... Grandma, mama, daddy and all his other loved ones still here. We just have to keep serving Jesus until it's our time to go, or His time to come and take His followers to our Heavenly Home. Cash is now, a Heavenly Lil Angel watching over You and His loved ones. I pray God wraps His Loving arms around You and your Precious family, gives you all Comfort and Peace that Only God can bring at this most difficult time. Love & Prayers, Tracy & Buddy King
