“ Condolences to our cousins. Praying you'll have the peace of Jesus as you go through time of grieving the temporary separation of your mom. Know that you'll be reunited some day. Aunt "Babe" was the only aunt we knew growing up. During their "Cleveland years" was able to spend some time with them and Becky, you were the sister I enjoyed hanging out with and learned how to have fun! With love and ALWAYS in our prayers, Cuz-wuzel, and Gary,too.

“ Aloha all U Prathers

I have a deep love of this remarkable lady. Such a sweet lady. I had many good fun hours with "Babe" and Roy {and some with Geoge Kanas}. Especially while in college we were so broke, we invented ways to go on'a date and spend little or no money. George was. later in life, the "champ at cheep". We didn't know how good he would get @ cheep. We had such good times and Babe always there being our Queen.

Roy was suc'a star in basket ball and Babe was a star too, just being Babe! She was and is loved... and missed by so many - esp me!

Love to all. Dale Mullins
