“ My prayers are with you during this time. This is a hard thing to understand, just know God will carry you through this but you have to rely on Him to do so.

DeWayne & Lynn, I understand the loss of a child, there is no greater pain. Just know you can get through it, but it helps to do it together. You are in my prayers as you face this hard time and many days ahead. Cherish those years of memories you did have, for ours were only days. Now he is with Betty and much better off than we are. You have two Guardian Angels. God Bless and keep you all.##imported-begin##Reba Blackwell Talley##imported-end##

“ *Dear Pitts Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I will always rember the beautiful smile Chad kept on his face when he was around. He was best friends with my son Caleb and was also friends with my daughter Brittany. They camped, rode horses and just had lots of fun together. He left lots of fun memories for all of our family to remember him by. I will be keeping all of you close in thought and prayer during this time.*
