Dear loving cousin and precious son of God, how we loved being family and laughing together. Thank you for being the leader and bonding family man of God that you were. Loving the Lord, uniting family, always trying to do the right thing, showing love and mercy, and walking humbly with our Savior. You always called and wanted to know how we were. Sharing the comfort of God's word, the funny and memories of the best times of those we love. We love and respected the way you tried to work, share life and show those you loved how much you cared. Buddy, you did it better than most. Your work here is done. Enjoy the the wonderful things God has for you. Looking forward to being with you again dear loved one. Prayers for those missing you here. RIP love of my heart , my family. 💕.
