“ Mary,

Please accept my condolences. You were able to enjoy your mother's company for a long time. I am sure you made many memories together. Treasure them. May she rest in peace.

*Love and prayers,
Betty Cook*

“ Judy and I will remember Charlotte as a kind, accomplished, and very friendly woman!

I remember asking her, each time we met, "Mom, what kind of cookies did you bring me today?" Of course, occasionally my question bore fruit! Her cookies were delicious.

Mary, you were blessed with a great Mom, and I know you will always have fond memories of her. She had a great life for you to celebrate.

Godspeed,

Paul and Judy Douglas
