“ Cheryl is my beautiful sister-in-law of thirty four years . It seems like yesterday that I met her for the first time when I was required to meet " her " approval to marry her brother-in-law (my husband Gary) and I managed to hold up under much scrutiny ! I am so grateful for the scrutiny ... Cheryl was a true Southern girl like no other . With all of her beauty (internal and external) , grace , and charm . ~ While we in our human flesh are still dismayed at the untimely passing of one that we loved so dear we also know that God makes no mistakes and His timing is perfect in all things . Even when our earthly selfish minds and hearts say " Please God , no " ! ~ Sweet Cheryl , I will miss you with all of my heart , but I look forward with anticipation to the day that we meet again face to face before our Savior . I love you dear one .

“ Cheryl was one of my dearest friends in high school and I'll always treasure the times we had together. I ran into her at the post office a few months back & we took a few minutes to catch up - I hadn't seen her in awhile & now I'm so grateful our paths crossed again at that time. I've always had a special place for her in my heart & will never forget our friendship....Reba
