“ Chevis, Melba, and Harper will always be etched in our families memory. When facing very uncertain times with Jonathan (my son's) hospitalization and illness, Chevis was the one whose presence encouraged and sustained us in those difficult times.

We spent much time with Melba, Harper, and him while at College Street. I remember being the beneficiary of Chevis's culinary skills and learning from the master. To this day, I think of Chevis when I make peach cobbler.

Thanks for the memories and our deepest heartfelt sympathies to all the family.

“ My Mother and I have great memories of Chevis from 1970-1972 from Oakway. We spent many hours playing basketball at Oakway school and he came to our house to play basketball on our paved court me and my brother Steve got for Christmas one year. My Daddy A C Campbell and lots of teens in Oakway gathered there with us. Chevis and Dennis Moore came and everyone had so much fun with him. He was so jolly!!! What a great influence he was on use and all the great memories we have. Will be missed!!

My family and I have been friends of this giving, kind, helpful man since the late 1960's. My husband and I have many fond memories of him. He was truly one of a kind and will be missed terribly. He was a sweet cousin. I'm heavy hearted at this news. My prayers are with Resa and the rest of his family and friends.
