“ My heart is broken to hear that your beautiful son has passed. He was such a courageous young man. Such a beautiful smile all the time during this fight. I can't imagine what a delight he was his whole life to his Mom❤️ I am so sorry that his time with us was so short. God has plans for this child❤️.

“ I didn't have the honor of knowing this young man in person. However, from the moment I saw his face and his story on social media, he captured my heart. To know that he is resting in the arms of Jesus is comforting, but he will always be missed in this life. Prayers for his family and sweet dog, Midnight ❤️.

These two started off as Tiger Cubs together. It was so much fun watching them grow through scouting together and we were so blessed for the time that they got to share together.

“ When Christian was named the winner of the Professor John Cahill Award for the AJJF Tournament Competitor of the Year at our on-line national convention, the members posted comments in the chat congratulating him and sending him well wishes. It was very touching how many posts were made to him after hearing about his indomitable spirit. Christian touched hundred of lives that evening.

“ Christian joined me in swim lessons a couple summers ago. He was a natural athlete and I tried to recruit him to the competitive swim team. Of course he had much other things he was involved in. He was a bright spirit who shined a light to all he came into contact with. From his ongoing smile to the sparkling eyes, I believe he touched so many in his short time. Condolences to all who loved him. A big hole he will leave here, but a great space he will fill in heaven. I am so glad I got to meet him. June Kinzie
