

Christine Hudson Thompson

July 15, 1921 - December 23, 2011

Christine Hudson Thompson, 90, of Westminster, SC, completed her life peacefully at the Seneca Health and Rehabilitation Center with her family on December 23, 2011.

Born in Walhalla, SC, on July 15, 1921, Mrs. Thompson was the daughter of the late Carl and Dessie Hudson of Walhalla. She was a woman of many facets and accomplishments. She is remembered throughout Oconee County by the many lives she touched during her fifteen years of teaching the Emergency Medical Technician, First Aid and CPR courses at Tri-County Technical College. She retired from Dunlop in Westminster, SC in 1989. She was a very loving mother and wife with a great sense of humor and a big heart.

Christine is lovingly missed and her life is celebrated by her two children, Henry L. (Dick) Thompson, III, and his wife Grenae of Athens, GA, and Larry K. (Butch) Thompson and wife Sandra of Westminster, SC; a brother, Harold Hudson of St. Petersburg, FL; grandchildren, Michele T. Bruce of Dawsonville, GA, Stephen Thompson of Roswell, GA, Jennifer C. Brown of Auburn, GA, Chris Thompson of Atlanta, GA, and April Aguilar of Copperas Cove, TX; great-granddaughters, Mary Margaret Bruce and Isabella C. Bruce of Dawsonville, GA, Kendall G. Brown and Shiloh G. Brown of Auburn, GA and Lauren C. Aguilar of Copperas Cove, TX.

In addition to her husband, Henry L. Thompson, Jr., and parents, she was predeceased by a daughter, Lynda Thompson; brothers, Clyde Hudson, Alton Hudson, Doyle Hudson, and Ray Hudson; and a sister, Pauline Barton.

Funeral services will be held Monday, December 26, 2011 at 2:00 PM at Rocky Knoll Baptist Church, Walhalla, SC with the Rev. Fred Smith of Greenwood, SC, officiating.

The family will receive friends from 12:00-1:30 PM, prior to the service, at Davenport Funeral Home.
