“ Dear Glenda,
I know this is a difficult time for you. I have thought of you often during these past few months. I haven't been able to return to NHC as it's still too painful for me. But, you have been a devoted daughter and Christine was extremely blessed to have had such a wonderful family. I hope you will find comfort in the coming months knowing you did your very best for her and that now she is at peace. I will keep you in my prayers.
