

Mr. Clark K. Riley

September 4, 1935 - June 18, 2025

Clark K. Riley, age 89 of Salem, SC passed away at home on June 18, 2025.

Clark was born on September 4, 1935 in Abington, PA the youngest son of the late Irene Kaye Riley and George Jacob Riley. He graduated from The William Penn Charter School in 1953 and Lehigh University in 1957. He was a member of the Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. Clark was married to his high school sweetheart, Jane Foulke Cobourn of Rydal, PA for over 56 years until her passing in 2011.

Following graduation from college, he began his 36-year Sales and Marketing career in the Specialty Steel business working for Allegheny Ludlum Steel Corp. and spin-off AL Tech Specialty Steel Corp. Clark and his family had lived in Natrona Heights, PA, Dayton, OH, Upper Saint Clair, PA, Valley Forge, PA, Clifton Park, NY and Orchard Park, NY. His final move was to the Keowee Key community in SC because it reminded him of his dearly loved Lake George in the Adirondacks of upstate New York. In addition to Lake life, he loved his multi-generational family reunions, golf, woodworking and singing.

He is survived by his daughter Beverlee and (Stephen) McCourt of Kingston, MA, his daughter-in-law Kathy Riley of Hebron, KY, three Grandchildren, Adam Riley of Chestertown, NY, David McCourt (Jessica) of Reading, MA, and Katherine McCourt of Basalt, CO, two step Grandchildren, Paul (Darla)

Kendall of Mason OH, and Kevin (Celia) Kendall of Union, KY and four Great Grandchildren, Margot, Ronan, Eva and Oliver. He is also survived by his sister-in-law, Elizabeth Cole, of Greenwood, SC, good friend Susan Allbaugh of Clemson, SC. and his beloved cat Luna.

He was predeceased by his wife Jane Foulke Cobourn, in 2011, oldest son Clark K. Riley, Jr. "Skip" in 2025, his youngest son John W. Riley in 2017 and his brother George J. Riley, Jr. in 2017.

Clark will be buried at the Abington Friends Meeting Cemetery in Jenkintown, PA at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Clark's name to The American Cancer Society, online at, donate.cancer.org.
