“ I don't think there are any words anyone can say to comfort a family that has just lost a loved one. I have always felt such a loss for words at times like this. To you Sallie and Linda, you both have my profound and deepest sympathy. I was proud to call Bill my friend and I will miss him.##imported-begin##Jimmy Snead##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Bill was such a wonderful and special man. We all loved him, especially little Devon. I will remember him sitting on the back porch playing his music or doing all his busy work around the yard. He will be greatly missed. Thank you so much for all that you do for Peggy. Anything that I can do for you or any of the family, please do not hesitate to call on me. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.
