“ I’m so sorry to hear about Clint. Clint and Levi rented from me a few years ago. He was always so nice and even watched out for me if he thought something was going on around my house. He had such a kind, caring heart. Praying for you all. Linda Pearson

“ Clint visited St. Matthew Baptist Church as a stranger to most of us, but when he left, it was as a dear friend to ALL of us. A friend who was and is missed greatly. It was here that this tall young man unexpectedly walked forward and recommitted his life to God. What an amazing and inspiring act of obedience!
Clint was a kind and accepting young man given to us all and who has now returned to his Father.
We're praying for you.
