

Mrs. Colleen Lourdes Hesemann

December 9, 1957 - April 3, 2023

Colleen Lourdes Hesemann, 65, wife of Richard F. Hesemann, of Seneca, passed away on Monday, April 3, 2023, at Cottingham Hospice House after her brave battle with pancreatic cancer.

A native of Evergreen Park, Illinois, Mrs. Hesemann was the daughter of the late Joseph Edward McDermott and Lourdes Laverne Mackey McDermott. She was a wife, mother, homemaker, baker, volunteer, and member of Eternal Shepherd Lutheran Church. Mrs. Hesemann was devout in her faith and took courage in the Lords will. She publicly confessed the Gospel promise of salvation by grace alone, in faith alone, in Christ our Lord. She served God in vocations at home, church, and in the community.

In addition to her husband Rich of forty years, Mrs. Hesemann is survived by her son: Nathan Dermott Hesemann (Krista); brothers: Patrick McDermott (Terri) and Terry McDermott (Denise); and sisters: Maureen Jucas (Kas), Kathleen McDermott and Sharon McDermott. She is also survived by numerous friends and other family members.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Hesemann was preceded in death by her sister: Sheila McDermott; and grandfather: Walter Mackey.

A memorial service to celebrate Colleen's life will be held at Eternal Shepherd

Lutheran Church, located in Seneca, SC on April 12th, 2023, at 11am.

Flowers may be sent, or memorials made to Eternal Shepherd Lutheran Church.

“ Dear Rich and family,

Please be comforted in the fact that you have given Colleen a wonderful life filled with so many fond memories. Her legacy is her son - who she was so proud of - and the positive imprint she left on so many people. Hold tight to those memories and feel at peace that she had a full life and loved you deeply.

We will not forget Colleen...and will reflect on our lively conversations with a smile.

*With support and condolences,
Laurie & Bill Raimondi*
