“ I am so sorry to hear this. Diane and I were good friends in high school and kinda lost touch after that. She was a great friend and always had my back no matter what! Loved her!

“ Diane - We went to say our final Goodbye to you this morning and Sister, I give you my word - Paula did everything exactly as you requested and I think you would have been genuinely pleased with the service. Kirby and I both are so sad that we never had that dinner with you that we talked about a few weeks ago, but are both so thankful that we were able to spend a few hours with you several different times in the last few months. I know that you felt somewhat lost yourself after losing Hugh, and no matter what the medical diagnosis was I believe in my heart and soul that the real issue for you was the heartbreak of not having Hugh here with you - now that is really the one thing we can take comfort in, knowing for certain that you and Hugh have been reunited and are free from pain and the misery this old world holds. You were a good friend Diane and when the pastor spoke this morning about how you didn't trust a lot of people - that was so true - but we are so thankful that you did put your trust in us and have been such a genuine friend that we trusted implicitly. We both know that your circle was small and being included in that circle was a true blessing. I can never remember a time that Kirby was on a trip that you and Hugh did not call to remind me that you could be here in a matter of minutes if I needed you - and I KNEW BEYOND A SHADOW OF A DOUBT that I could depend on that - as easily as I could depend on time to change - you and Hugh were that kind of friends - rather Our Chosen Family. We are so going to miss you - and Pearl absolutely misses her Aunt Diane already - but knowing for certain that you are with Hugh and were welcomed home into The Arms of Our Heavenly Father as well as those that went before you provides us with that Peace That Passes All Understanding. Give Hugh a Big Hug and Kiss from us both and tell him Deb said for him to give you a Hug and Kiss from us as well!
