“ Joellen, I am so sorry to hear about you losing your grandson. I have been hearing all the sweet things the teens have had to say about him on FaceBook for weeks now and how worried they have been for him. You could tell how concerned they were and how they were hoping that he would be able to recover. He was obviously cared for by all and must be leaving a loving family as well. I am praying for you and your family during this difficult time.

“ To the family of Corey,
Words can not convey the loss of a child,that empty space in the family will always be there.
There is one assurance for each of you, he is now in a far better place than we will ever know,for even now he is standing upright among angels, saints and loved ones who have gone on before.##imported-begin##Stephen and Selena Charles##imported-end##

“ Joellen and family: Our thoughts and prayers are with you. I know you all loved Cory very much and you made his life here on earth as comfortable and memorable as possible. It is never easy losing someone you love but focus on all the good memories instead of the bad and that seems to ease the pain! God needed another angel so he chose Cory! We love you. “ Christy, Jasmine, & the rest of Cory's loved ones,

I'm so very sorry for your loss of your beautiful Cory. By this I mean Cory was such a beautiful individual inside and out. His smile would truly light up a room. I remember the first time I met Cory working at JMB in the cafeteria. He was so respectful and polite. I can also remember his perseverance when he was walking with his crutches and people would be running down the hall and bump Cory and make him fall and we would try to come to his rescue and he'd say I can get up by myself and he would. He was so proud of himself that he could do things on his own. I'm telling you these some of my sweet memories of Cory not to make you sad but to make you smile. Just as they do me. I'll keep yall in my prayers!##imported-begin##Dianne Reid##imported-end##

“ Cory was such a sweetie with a beautiful smile! Even in the hospital, he had such a good outlook and that smile and, oh, those big brown eyes! I'm so glad I came by yesterday to see him. Cory was a pleasant little boy at JMB elementary ...you just had to love him. I know that he is in a better place and pray that God will bring you peace; I know He will. Much, much love to you all.
