“ As your big sister it's so hard losing you little brother. I remember when you were little falling asleep on the couch and I would tell you that it was time to go to bed and you would say "I was just resting my eyes!" We fought a lot as children do growing up, but I knew you still loved me.

“ It hurts so much to lose you little brother! You loved to pick on me just to see my face get red and then Crack up laughing when I would get even madder. I can't stop thinking of you when you were little.

“ *Driven across many nations, across many oceans,
I am here my brother, for this final parting,
to offer at last those gifts which the dead are given
and to speak in vain to your unspeaking ashes,
since bitter fortune forbids you to hear me or answer,
O my wretched brother, so abruptly taken!
But now I must celebrate grief with funeral tributes
offered the dead in the ancient way of the fathers;
accept these presents, wet with my brotherly tears, and now and forever, my brother, hail and farewell.
