“ I remember Darlene as always being a very happy, loving person. We shared alot of precious memories in our teenage years. She was always there for me. We laughed, and cruised town in my dad's car when she would come over. I have alot of great memories to cherish.

Only God can give you peace, comfort and be with you each day to help carry you through this dark valley. The four of us always had good times together, especially at Christmas. We would talk, laugh and just enjoy one another's company so much. We love you so much and will miss Darlene.*
