

Mr. David Lappin

April 26, 1955 - January 19, 2025

David Owen Lappin, 69, of Easley, South Carolina, was born on April 26, 1955, in Davenport, Iowa, to the late Betty and Royal Lappin.

David is survived by his wife, Harriet Lappin of Easley, SC; his children, Chelsea Bibombe (Romeo) of Powder Springs, GA, and Zachary Lappin (Isabel) of Powdersville, SC; and his cherished grandchildren, Nora and Nathan Bibombe. He is also survived by his siblings, Tom Lappin (Maria) of Greer, SC; Daniel Lappin (Kim) of Easley, SC; Nancy Callahan (Sonny) of Greer, SC; and Lisa Lucas (Barry) of Cumming, GA, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

David graduated from Clemson University. His professional career began at G&B Eggs and culminated as the Public Works Director for the City of Easley. David took pride in his work and valued the camaraderie he shared with his colleagues.

Outside of work, David enjoyed Clemson football and the serenity of the Tennessee mountains, both of which brought him contentment. He fondly remembered traveling around the Southeast with his family for sports camps, enjoying weekend trips to the mountains, and embarking on a memorable road trip to visit his birthplace in Davenport, Iowa. In his younger years, he also enjoyed trips to Road Atlanta, where he developed an interest in motorsports.

David's memory will be honored privately.

In lieu of flowers, the family encourages contributions to the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society at www.lls.org/donate or Shriners Hospitals for Children at lovetotherescue.org, in David's memory.
